2005 IATE Poetry and Prose Contest

Poems of Exceptional Merit

Susannah Lauber, 3rd grade Pleasant Hill Elementary School Winfield, Illinois Teacher, Carol Gallagher

Lost Glasses

I was there Wedged securely in a damp lily Wet as the cold earth And you didn't even notice me I was there in front of your nose And you just walked right past me I'm lucky that I was in my case Or I would have become an ice cube (I didn't want to be an ice cube!) You wasted time looking for me On ledges and underneath chairs While I was trapped in a flower Wet as snow and screaming for help And STILL you didn't notice me I was stuck At the pool All night During a thunderstorm Until... (Hooray!) Mom found me And brought me home to you!